A MADS MESSAGE

2009 has been a very busy year for MADS – a pantomime, two one-act plays and now a full three act production which we hope you will enjoy.

This comedy thriller has been translated from its original Spanish by MADS member, Mal Mallett, and my thanks to him for all his work on the script.

Mary White, our prize-winning actor, is not in the MADS cast list this time. She is making her debut as director and my thanks go to her and all the cast who have worked so hard to bring you tonight's performance.

MADS is also fortunate in having a talented team of technicians, set designers, builders and artists who add so much to every production from posters to the full set. And, of course, there are our own 'honourable' ladies who serve the interval refreshments. My thanks to all who have contributed to the success of 'An Honourable Woman'.

Thank you for your support and I hope you enjoy the evening. MADS look forward to seeing you again in 2010 . An Old Time Variety Show is planned for January 29th and 30th and our Spring Production is April 15th – 17th.
